

Our resident Anna's and migrating Rufous hummingbirds are an important part of our ecosystem helping control insects are great pollinators.

---

Use this guide to make strategic selections when choosing vegetable seeds for planting your 2025 garden.

---

Enjoy the sweet, aromatic flavor of homegrown figs in the Pacific Northwest with these select varieties.

---

Capture the seasonal flavors by preserving fresh herbs. Get started drying, freezing, dehydrating and enhance your meals deep into the winter.

---

Whatever the physical challenge, take heart and continue to enjoy gardening by implementing some of these adaptive methods.

---

Learn about pollinators and open your eyes to the beauty and intricate connectivity of nature. As gardeners, we can make choices that will enhance or inhibit pollinators.

---

Interested in growing vegetables but wondering where to start? Master gardeners walk you through what to consider when starting a vegetable garden for the first time.

---

Grow herbs and vegetables in the middle of the winter with an indoor growing stand.

---

Winter is a great time to plan for next season and explore the many advantages of building raised gardening beds.

---

An early frost quickly brings a close to the gardening season. Here, Master Gardener Hallie Kintner discusses tools and techniques to extend the season.

---

Master Gardener Sheri Rylaarsdam shares the fun of getting started saving and sharing seeds from your garden.

---

Get started pressing apple juice and making cider. Learn about the excellent resources here in Skagit County and how to get started pressing apple juice and making fermented apple cider.

---

Join us for a day of discovery and learning at the Skagit Master Gardener's Discovery Garden in Mount Vernon